

Evaluation Contest Rules

These rules apply to all Evaluation Contests, which are conducted in English only. These rules may not be supplanted or modified, and no exceptions may be made.

1. PURPOSE

- A. To encourage development of evaluation skills and to recognize the best as encouragement to all.
- B. To provide an opportunity to learn by observing the more proficient evaluators who have benefited from their Toastmasters training.

2. SELECTION SEQUENCE

- A. Each club in good standing may select its club Evaluation Contest winner to compete in the area contest. A club may choose its contestant by whatever means the club desires. If a contest is held, it must comply with all these rules and the contest result is final. The area speech contest winner then proceeds to the division contest (if applicable). The division winner then proceeds to the district contest. Should an area or division contest winner be unable to participate in the next contest level, the highest placed available contestant will advance to that level.
- B. In those areas with four assigned clubs or less eight weeks prior to the area contest, districts have the option to allow the two highest placed available contestants from each club to compete in the area contest. Should additional clubs charter prior to the area contest, the two highest placed available contestants from each club may compete. In those divisions with four assigned areas or less, districts have the option to allow the two highest placed available contestants from each area to compete. In districts with four assigned divisions or less, districts have the option to allow the two highest placed available contestants from each division to participate in the district contest.

The decision whether or not to allow two contestants to advance from club to area, from area to division, and/or from division to district must be made and communicated throughout the district prior to the commencement of the contest cycle – i.e. prior to any club contests being held. Once the decision is made, it must be implemented consistently throughout the district in all areas and divisions affected. If a district decides to allow two contestants to advance from club to area, its decisions regarding the number to advance from area to division and/or from division to district need not be the same.

3. ELIGIBILITY

- A. All Toastmasters who are members in good standing of the club in which they are competing are eligible to compete. The club also must be in good standing. New, dual, or reinstated members must have dues and membership application current with Toastmasters International.

A member must maintain eligibility at all levels of any contest. If at any level it is discovered that a contestant was ineligible to compete at any previous level, the contestant must be disqualified even if the ineligibility is not discovered until a later level and has been corrected.

- B. The following are ineligible to compete in this contest: incumbent international officers and directors; district officers (governor, any lieutenant governor, secretary, treasurer, public relations officer, division governor, or area governor) whose terms expire June 30; international officer and director candidates; immediate past district governors; district officers or announced candidates for the term beginning the upcoming July 1; presenters of educational sessions at the area, division, and district event at which the contest will be held. An individual may not be a judge at any level for a contest in which they are still competing.
- C. Toastmasters who are members in more than one club and who meet all other eligibility requirements may compete in each club contest in which membership in good standing is held. However, should they win more than one club Evaluation Contest, they can represent only one of the clubs at the area level. No contestant can compete in more than one area Evaluation Contest, even if the two areas are in different divisions.
- D. A contestant must be a member in good standing of the club, area, or division being represented when competing in a speech contest at the next level.
- E. Each contestant must complete the Speaker's Certification of Eligibility and Originality (form 1183) and submit it to the chief judge prior to the contest.
- F. Each contestant must be present to compete. Participation by audio and video tape and teleconference is not permitted.

4. GENERAL PROCEDURE

- A. At the club level contests, a contest chairman, chief judge, at least five judges, a tiebreaking judge, three counters, and two timers are appointed, as far as practical.
- At the area level contests, there should be at least five judges or equal representation from the clubs composing the area in addition to a contest chairman, chief judge, a tiebreaking judge, three counters and two timers.
- At the division or district level contests, there should be at least seven judges or equal representation from the areas composing the division or district in addition to a contest chairman, chief judge, a tiebreaking judge, three counters, and two timers. At the district contest, no judge shall be a member of the club represented by a contestant.
- B. Before the contest, contestants and the contest sergeant at arms are briefed on the rules by the contest chairman. Judges, counters, and timers are briefed on their duties by the chief judge. Contestants will then draw for their speaking position with the contest chairman.

- C. If a contestant is absent from the briefing, the alternate speaker, if present, may attend the briefing in place of the primary contestant. If the primary contestant is not present when the person conducting the contest is introduced to conduct the contest, the primary contestant is disqualified and the alternate officially becomes the contestant. Should the primary contestant arrive after the briefing but before the person conducting the contest is introduced, the primary contestant may compete, provided the primary contestant: 1) reports to the contest chairman upon his/her arrival, and 2) has all required paperwork in good order before the person conducting the contest is introduced to begin the contest. The primary contestant waives the opportunity of a briefing.
- D. All contestants will speak from the same platform or area designated by the contest chairman. All contestant and judges will be advised of the speaking area before the contest begins. The contestants may speak from any position within the designated area and are not limited to standing at the lectern/podium.
1. A lectern/podium will be available. However, the use of the lectern/podium is optional.
 2. If amplification is necessary, a lectern/podium fixed-mounted microphone and a portable microphone should be made available, if possible. It is suggested that the fixed-mounted microphone be nondirectional. The selection and use of a microphone is optional for each contestant.
 3. All equipment will be available for contestants to practice prior to the contest. Contestants are responsible for arranging their preferred setup of the lectern/podium microphone and other equipment in a quiet manner before being introduced by the Toastmaster.
- E. At the beginning of this contest a five- to seven-minute test speech will be presented. The test speech should be either a contest-type speech, or taken from one of the assignments in the Competent Communication manual. Contestants may make preparatory notes during the test speech using materials of their choice. It is recommended that at all levels of the contest, the Toastmaster giving the test speech is not a member of the same club as any one of the contestants. The test speaker shall be introduced by announcing the speaker's name, speech title, speech title, and the speaker's name. Neither the manual project nor any objectives that the speaker may have shall be made known to the contestants, judges, or audience.
- F. At the conclusion of the test speech, all contestants shall leave the room. They then have five minutes to prepare their evaluation using materials of their choice. Timing and preparation supervision shall be under the control of the contest sergeant at arms. Where this is not practical, contestants will complete their five minute preparation in the same room under the control of the contest sergeant at arms.
- G. After five minutes has elapsed no further preparation shall be allowed and with the exception of the first contestant, who shall be called back as first evaluator (where preparation is done in the same room, with the exception of the first contestant, the others shall leave the room), all others shall hand all written material to the contest sergeant at arms. Preparation material shall be handed back to contestants as they are introduced to present their evaluation.

- H. Introduce each contestant by announcing the contestant's name twice.
- I. There will be one minute of silence between contestants, during which the judges will mark their ballots.
- J. Announcement of contest winners is final, unless the list of winners is announced incorrectly, in which case the chief judge, ballot counters, or timers may immediately interrupt to correct the error.

5. TIMING

- A. Evaluations shall be from two to three minutes. Contestants who speak less than one minute 30 seconds or more than three minutes 30 seconds will be disqualified.
- B. Timing will begin with the contestant's first definite verbal or non-verbal communication with the audience. This usually will be the first word uttered by the contestant, but would include any other communication such as sound effects, a staged act by another person, etc.
- C. The green signal will be displayed at two minutes and remain displayed for 30 seconds. The amber signal will be displayed at two minutes and thirty seconds and remain displayed for 30 seconds. The red signal will be displayed at three minutes and remain displayed until the evaluation is concluded. No audible device, such as a buzzer, shall be used for the overtime period.
- D. Any visually impaired contestant may request and must be granted a form of warning signal of his or her own choosing. Acceptable warning signals would include, but not be limited to: a buzzer, a bell, or a person announcing the times at two minutes, two minutes 30 seconds, and three minutes. If any special device and/or specific instructions for such signal is/are required, the contestant must provide same.
- E. In the event of technical failure of the signal, a speaker is allowed 30 seconds extra overtime before being disqualified.
- F. Prior to announcing results, the chairman should announce if time disqualification(s) occurred, but not name the contestant(s) involved.

6. PROTESTS AND DISQUALIFICATION

- A. Protests will be limited to judges and contestants. Any protest will be lodged with the chief judge and/or contest chairman prior to the announcement of the winner and alternate(s). The contest chairman shall notify the contestant of a disqualification regarding eligibility prior to that announcement before the meeting at which the contest took place is adjourned.
- B. The contest chairman can disqualify a contestant on the basis of eligibility.
- C. All decisions of the judges are final.

7. WINNERS

In contests with five or more participants, a third place winner (if wanted), a second place winner, and a first place winner will be announced. In contests with four or fewer participants, a second place and first place winner will be announced.

8. CONTEST SCHEDULE

Districts conducting Evaluation Contests should announce the date of the district contest and establish dates by which the division, area, and club contests must be completed.
